

AOL News Release

26th September 2006

Win a slice of paradise with AOL UK's biggest ever competition

AOL's new UK web portal has teamed up with overseas property specialists Your Place Abroad, to offer a chance to win a holiday home on the Caribbean island of Isla Margarita.

Worth almost £65,000, the property is the highest value single competition prize ever offered by AOL UK. The competition is open to existing AOL subscribers or anyone creating a free AOL webmail account. It can be found at www.aol.co.uk/homesandproperty.

AOL UK senior editor, Sonia Brar, said: "It's a spectacular prize and a significant step in proving the attractiveness of online, and specifically AOL, as a destination for landmark promotions such as this."

Chris Davies, CEO, Your Place Abroad said: "This partnership promises to be an exciting and fruitful venture for both parties. Your Place Abroad is an ambitious entrepreneurial company that is building a strong brand and reputation in the overseas residential property market"

"Isla Margarita is an exciting new location for Brits looking to purchase an exotic overseas property offering great weather, amazing beaches and excellent value for money, I'm sure you will be hearing a lot more of Margarita in the future".

The competition will run from 29th September for six weeks.
